Branch with the financial assistance of the Department of Science and Technology, Government of Assam and in collaboration with Madhab Choudhury College, Barpeta for the promotion and dissemination of science.

On the first day, a good number of students from schools in Tapa, Bhawanipur and Kayakuchi areas participated in the drawing competition and science quiz competition.

The science quiz competition was conducted by Dr. Sanjib Deuri, Associate Professor, Department of Chemistry, Madhab Choudhury College. Participation of the students in the essay competition on "Plastic Pollution and its Prevention" held earlier was also quite satisfactory. The lecture on "Biodiversity Conservation" was delivered by Dr Jaydev Mandal, Assistant Professor, Department of Zoology, Madhab Choudhury College. Dr Mandal presented the important parts of biodiversity in an interesting manner to the students and the public. The most interesting program of the first day was the science exhibition organized by the students of Madhab Choudhury College. The science exhibition was inaugurated by Smriti Rekha Talukdar, Principal of Tapa Higher Secondary School. The first program of the second day of the Rural Fair was an attractive procession through the countryside. The procession was attended by students, teachers, local people and members of the Science Society. In the poster presentation competition on "Global Warming and Climate Change", several teams displayed posters and explained the theme to the students and the public. This was followed by an interesting discussion on 'The Evil Impact of Superstition on Society'. The open session and awards ceremony was held at 2 pm. Dr. Prakash Sharma, Principal, Madhab Choudhury College, Barpeta addressed the students and described the sacrifices and hard work of the scientists. Barpeta District Commissioner Tej Prasad Bhuchal, who was the chief guest of the meeting, asked the students to discuss textbook issues instead of Facebook and WhatsApp when they meet. He stressed the need to read printed books even in the age of internet. After the speech, the Vice-President of the Branch, Amarendra Das delivered the vote of thanks.
