Subject- Requesting initiation of appropriate measure based on findings of the feedbacks on curriculum

Sir,

With reference to the subject cited above, I am sending herewith the findings of the feedbacks provided by the students and teachers on the curriculum. The feedbacks are analyzed by the assigned committee and report of the committee is discussed threadbare in IQAC. I am sending the findings of the feedback analyzing committee along with inputs from IQAC for your perusal and necessary action.

Findings:

- It seems that SEC papers for some departments were hurriedly designed without proper consideration of the needs of the UG students. As for example, there is only one paper, that is, "Creative writing for 3rd sem in English. But it is meant for only those who wants to take up writing as career in future. So, it does 'not cater to the diverse needs of the larger section of the students.
- In the same way, the paper ENG-HC-3016 of English is designed putting so many historical periods of literature within one paper, which should have been spread across 2 or 3 semester.
- The papers ZOO-HC-5016, ZOO-HC-5026 and ZOO-HC-6016 of Zoology are too vast for semester system.

Thanking You.

Yours Faithfully

I am sending the findings of the feedback analyzing committee along with inputs from IQAC for your perusal and necessary action.

Findings:

- As is reflected in the feedback of the Zoology department, most of the practicals are not possible in UG laboratories.
- The practicals are so designed that they do not properly support the corresponding theory paper.
- As we come across the two full years since the introduction of CBCS by Gauhati University, we saw, that the "Choice" part of Choice Based Credit System remains an unattainable dream as it requires much larger infrastructure and much more number of faculties.

Thanking You.

Findings:

- The paper BOT-HE-5026, that is Horticultural Practices and Post-Harvest Technology is assigned no practical paper, whereas the title itself implies it demands the same.
- The papers BOT-SE3014, BOT-SE-4014, BOT-SE-5014 and BOT-SE-6024 – do not have specified practical papers and as result the theoretical knowledge of the students remains incomplete.
- In the pre-CBCS course, there were paper on Pharmacology and immunology, which are very relevant for UG honours course of Botany. But they are missing from the CBCS course.

Thanking You.

Dear Sir,

The issue of these papers were discussed in details in the meeting of UGCS and decision was taken to adopt the syllabus from the model syllabus of UGC. The UGC syllabus does not have practicals in these papers perhaps befitting to the content and intent. I am not sure but few other disciplines in GU who have SEC papers also do not have practical being adopted the UGC syllabus but that is not our justification. Anyway we would have appreciated if the teachers raising the issue could have contacted the HoD directly since one of them did participate in the meeting of the UGCS where these modifications were made.

Dear Sir,

We have a concern regarding the above SEC paper that this paper DOES NOT Contain any practicals whereas as per GU Notification, practical is an integral part of SEC papers. This concern is raised from MC College, Barpeta.

If you kindly clarify the matter, we can reply back to the person who has raised this concern. Regards

Subject: BA English Hon Syllabus (CBCS)

To: <bibhash@gauhati.ac.in>

Sir,

My regards and best wishes for the New Year.

We, the faculty members of the English Dept of M C College, Barpeta, deem it necessary to share with you certain points regarding Paper I of BA III Sem, English Hon. In this paper, attempts have been made to introduce the students with all the stages of the development of all the genres, starting from the age of Chaucer till the present (post modern/post-colonial), in one and the same Paper. Under Graduate students in our colleges enter into the course of literature studies without any prior formal knowledge of it, So we feel it will be better, if they are provided with less compact and more gradual a syllabus, involving more than two papers, atleast, for the discussion of the chronological study of the development of British and other western literature.

Dr Indrajyoti Roy Choudhury
