About the Programme:

Madhab Choudhury College marked National Librarian's Day celebrating birth anniversary of Padmashree Dr. S. R. Ranganathan, the father of librarianship in India. The event, organized by the Kameswar Das Library, Madhab Choudhury College was presided over by the college's Principal Dr. Prakash Sarma.

The event was graced by esteemed educationist and writer Shri Akshay Kumar Mishra and Shri Manjit Pathak, Assistant Professor, Department of Assamese, Madhab Choudhury College, Barpeta. Another invited speaker, Dr. Abani Kumar Das, HOD and Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science was unable to attend the programme due to his prior engagement. The programme was well attended by students, faculty and other staff of the college.

In his keynote speech, Shri Mishra highlighted on the life and works of Dr. Ranganathan. Shri Mishra further graciously donated a collection of valuable books authored by him to the library. He also inaugurated the new 'Book of the Month' feature in the Library, aimed at promoting reading and highlighting significant literary works. Professor Pathak stressed on the use of library for book reading and writing in his speech.

Additionally, the 'Best Library User Award' was presented to Miss Mehbooba Islam in recognition of her exceptional engagement with the library's resources. The celebration underscored the vital role of librarians in supporting academic and personal growth.
