Editorial...

As an institution of higher education, M.C. College, Barpeta has completed a glorious period of 78 years in its journey in imparting education to the people. The college has witnessed several occasions of success from the very beginning which collectively have led the institution to stand on today's position. The News Letter can be regarded as a pithy bit of the success stories of the college. The current volume of the same has been devoted to draw the curve of success of the college fraternity in recent past. The News Letter can also be considered as the mirror of the college and thus it will certainly help the institution to maintain its sound health forever.
